

Gabrielle's Wings

Contact: Biana Kovic

Email: info@gabrielleswings.org

Phone: 315 916 7059

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Gabrielle's Wings Announces the Launch of Gabrielle's Bookclub.

New York, New York - On what would have been Gabrielle's 11th birthday, Gabrielle's Wings is excited to announce the launch of Gabrielle's Bookclub.

Gabrielle's Bookclub is designed to engage elementary school-aged children in reading and sharing their thoughts on books from their carefully curated selection of books at Gabrielle's Corners around the world. Guided by educational and library science professionals, each quarter the organization will share a new book focused on diversity, inclusion, and youth empowerment.

The official launch date for Gabrielle's Bookclub is August 2nd, 2020.

Gabrielle's Wings believes that Gabrielle's Bookclub will bring children and caregivers together, inspiring a love for reading and meaningful discussion.

To join Gabrielle's Bookclub and get more details on this exciting new project, please visit <https://www.gabrielleswings.org>.

"Our first selection is AMAZING GRACE by Mary Hoffman. It challenges children to dream big and not limit themselves because of gender, race, or any other circumstances. It was one of Gabrielle's favorite books and I am excited to share it with our readers." Michelle Hord, Founder Gabrielle's Wings is a leading voice and advocate for equal educational opportunities for elementary school-aged children. We believe that each child has the potential to soar and make a long-lasting positive impact within their communities. For more information on Gabrielle's Wings, please visit <https://www.gabrielleswings.org> to learn more.